

Brief Profile of:
Sirajulla Ghouse Khan, MBA
(MCT Trustee: Currently Vice President)

Graduated in Science (BS) from University of Mysore in 1975 and MBA from University of Hull, UK in 1998. Have worked in India for about 6 years in State & Central Government Departments and State Bank of India (SBI) for approx. 2 years in each organization before joining Aramco (now Saudi Aramco) in January 1981. Worked for about 40 years in Saudi Aramco and Johns Hopkins Aramco Healthcare (JHAH) in healthcare organization.

Expertise includes, but not limited to strategic and operational planning, Budgeting, Finance, Business operations and consulting services to General, and Executive Management in Preventive Medicine and Medical Department (including Primary Care, Specialty Medicine, and Emergency Medical Services). Major responsibilities included coordination, development and implementation of disease prevention and health promotion programs for corporate employees and their families, such as screening programs, Age and Gender Specific Screening programs, chronic medical conditions prevention programs, occupational health prevention and wellness & safety programs.

Capabilities include development of marketing and operational presentations/reports to General, Executive and Corporate Management. Significant achievements included development of Medical Department's presentation to Saudi Aramco Executive Management Committee in 2010 and Saudi Aramco Board of Directors in 2012.

Professional Associations:

- Member, International Commission on Occupational Health (ICOH) since 2018.
- Senior Member, American Society for Quality (ASQ), USA (1996 – 2017).
- Member, Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM), USA (1996-2016).
- Member, Arabian Society for Human Resource Management (ASHRM), Saudi Arabia (1996-2014).
- Member, Ras Tanura Toastmaster Club, Saudi Arabia (2008-2012).
- Vice President, Saudi Aramco Community Self-Directed Group, Dhahran Badminton Group (2005).
- President, Saudi Aramco Community Self-Directed Group, Ras Tanura Badminton Group (2010 and 2012).

Fortunate to be associated with MCT since its inception in 1993. Presently Trustee and additionally serving MCT in the capacity as Vice President and Clinics' Central Coordinator (for all the clinics). Passionate to contribute and pay back to the community as much as possible. Dedicated to serving MCT and exerting efforts to take MCT to new heights and aiming MCT to be a "Role Model NGO" locally, regionally and both at National and Global level, In Shaa Allah!