Brief Profile of:
Sirajulla Ghouse Khan, MBA
(MCT Trustee: Currently President)

Professional Profile
Graduated with a Bachelor of Science (BSc) from the University of Mysore in 1975 and an MBA from the University of Hull, UK, in 1998. Began my career in India, serving approximately six years across State and Central Government Departments including two years with the State Bank of India before joining Aramco (now Saudi Aramco) in January 1981.

Over nearly 40 years with Saudi Aramco and Johns Hopkins Aramco Healthcare (JHAH), I gained extensive experience in healthcare administration, strategic and operational planning, budgeting, finance, business operations, and management consultancy. My responsibilities included supporting General and Executive Management across Preventive Medicine and Medical Services, encompassing Primary Care, Specialty Medicine, and Emergency Medical Services.

I played a key role in developing and implementing corporate healthcare initiatives, including medical screening, age and gender-specific health assessments, chronic disease prevention, occupational health, wellness, and safety programs for employees and their families. I also developed strategic presentations and management reports, including the Medical Department's presentations to the Saudi Aramco Executive Management Safety Review (EMSR) Committee in 2010 and the Board of Directors in 2012 (a first of its kind in the Medical Organization).

Professional Affiliations and Leadership
My professional associations include membership of the International Commission on Occupational Health (ICOH) since 2018, Senior Membership of the American Society for Quality (ASQ), and membership of the Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM) and the Arabian Society for Human Resource Management (ASHRM). I have also held community leadership roles as President of the Ras Tanura Badminton Group and Vice President of the Dhahran Badminton Group under Saudi Aramco's Community Self-Directed Groups.

Commitment to Maymar Charitable Trust (MCT)
Being one of the Founding Trustees, I have been instrumental in the establishment of Maymar Charitable Trust in 1993. Currently, remaining as a Trustee, serve as President and Director of Clinic Operations (managing all MCT clinics). Driven by a deep commitment to community service and the belief that serving humanity is a noble responsibility, I remain dedicated to strengthening MCT's initiatives, expanding its social impact, and advancing its mission to serve the underprivileged.
My vision is to help establish MCT as a role-model NGO at the local, regional, national, and global levels, In Shaa Allah.
